Dear Students

CONFUSED ABOUT YOUR CAREER?

“Science means Engineering or Medical... right?”

No, Success in Science Has Multiple Pathways.

Do you think success limited
to only two paths?

What if your mind
thinks differently?

What if you sketch ideas in the margins of your notebook?

What if you notice colors,
patterns, spaces, and details
others ignore?

That is not distraction.
That is creative Intelligence.

Architecture and Design Are Structured Science Careers.
It Creates Spaces, Systems, and Solutions.

Some students are meant to:

- Design the cities we live in
- Create products we use every day
- Shape fashion, interiors, graphics, and digital experiences
- Build sustainable spaces for the future

Architecture and Design are not “alternative” careers.
They are powerful, respected, and globally growing professions.

I'm really happy with the decision to enroll my daughter Ijaya at Idoodle Education for her design entrance preparation. She was aiming for exams like NIFT, SOFT, and CET Design, and I'm proud to share that she cleared all of them!

When she first joined, we honestly had very little idea about the format or expectations of design entrance exams. But the faculty at Idoodle made the journey smooth and encouraging. They guided her step-by-step—from the basics of sketching and color usage to advanced design thinking and model making. What truly made a difference was how they helped her build a unique and impressive portfolio.
